

The Winter Solstice Alphabet

Words: Rick Mohr
Tune: The Sailor's Alphabet

"A" is for an - gel swept out in the snow "B" is for bells ring -ing out high and low

"C" is for can - dles bur -ning so bright "D" is for dark on the lon _ _ gest night

Mer -ri -ly _ _ mer -ri -ly so mer -ry are we who know how de -light -ful the win -ter can be

Lift up your voi - ces, hear -ti -ly sing; We'll light up the dark -ness right through to the spring

A is for angel swept out in the snow
B is for bells ringing out high and low
C is for candles burning so bright
D is for dark on the longest night

Chorus:
Merrily, merrily, so merry are we
Who know how delightful the winter can be Lift up your voices, heartily sing
We'll light up the darkness right through to the spring

E is for evergreens bringing good cheer
F is for family and friends far and near
G is for gingerbread houses we build
H for hot chocolate when we are chilled

I is for ice skating with your sweetheart
J for Jack Frost and his sparkling art
K for a kiss, beneath mistletoe
L is for longjohns so warm in the snow

Chorus

M is for mummers who bring back the light
N for the new year rung in at midnight
O is for ornaments gracing the tree
P is for pie and please pass it to me

Q is for quiet of soft falling snow
R is for Rudolph with nose all aglow
S is for sledding, downhill we all slide
T for the tree bringing fragrance inside

Chorus

U is for us, together we'll be
V is for voices joined in harmony
W for winter and wassail and warm
X for excitement on Christmas morn

Y is for yule the Christmas of old
Z is for zipper to keep out the cold
Now with a whole alphabet full of cheer
We're ready to welcome another new year

Chorus